

MOTOR MARCH

A REENACTMENT

65 years ago throughout the United States and the United Kingdom troops were preparing for the invasion that would breach Hitler's Atlantic wall. The code name for that build up was called Operation Neptune

OPERATION NEPTUNE
D PLUS 65 YEARS
MAY 16, 2009

The New England based Yankee Division invites all WWII United States re-enactors and WWII Historic Military Vehicle owners to participate in the recreation of a historic WWII Motor March to be conducted in the Merrimack Valley of Central New Hampshire. The Route will follow old NH Route 3 and make several public stops along the way. During this Armed Forces Day trip:

Transport will be provided by WWII American Historic Military vehicles. Command of this march will be solely under the jurisdiction of the Yankee Division.

The operation will take about 5 hours time.

Appropriate pre-invasion uniforms and equipment is required.

There will be no financial remuneration for this event.

Since this is to be historically correct, women and children excluded from the march.

We look forward to sharing this event with all our fellow US re-enactors.
